

I am against concentrating more stations into ownership by fewer individuals/companies. It is the free marketplace of ideas which sets our country apart from many others and which strengthens us. Wealth should not result in a domination of the airwaves. This is something that affect every citizen and it just isn't right.